Engineer, Ikkyo Technology K.K, AlpacaDB Inc

Working as a Full Stack engineer at AlpacaDB, I was able to improve and put into practice my skills in Computer Vision and Machine Learning. I worked on every steps of the development process, from Core Design to Implementation and Testing, CI & QA, Networking and System Administration. The high-volume work required me to set new standards on code quality and work efficiency, making me reach expertise in the productivity area.
